

Induction Training for SHAPE Teaching Staff AY2021/22

About the Programme

This 5-hour programme aims at providing new SHAPE teaching staff with a better understanding of the educational approach and issues related to learning and teaching of VTC's collaborative programmes.

Objectives

The programme objectives are as follows:

- enable teaching staff to be more attuned to VTC's philosophy about learning and teaching
- encourage teaching staff to value oneself as a teacher and approach teaching in a professional and reflective way
- promote effective teaching performance
- provide a platform for new teachers to network and build support and commitment

Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the programme, participants will be able to:

- describe the implications of OBTL and HKQF to learning and teaching
- identify suitable teaching practices to motivate and enhance student learning
- employ strategies and technology to enhance teaching effectiveness

Target Audience

The Induction Training for SHAPE Teaching Staff is a voluntary programme for all new SHAPE teaching staff with full-time or part-time teaching responsibilities of collaborative programmes.
